

Chester Wilmot: war correspondent, historian, interpreter of worlds

@MelbPressClub

/MelbournePressClub

In the centenary year of the end of World War 1, the C.E.W.Bean Foundation, in partnership with the Melbourne Press Club, invites you to attend its annual commemorative dinner honouring Australian war correspondents, photographers, artists and cinematographers.

Paul Kelly, editor-at-large of The Australian, will give the dinner address and assess the remarkable career of war correspondent, broadcaster and author Chester Wilmot and the lessons for our age.

The dinner is being held at the historic Melbourne Savage Club. Book early as places are limited.

Date & Time

Thursday 22 February 2018
Cocktails 6pm, Dinner 7pm

Venue

Melbourne Savage Club
12 Bank Place
Melbourne

Dress

Business (jacket & tie required)

Cost

$120 MPC members and Bean Foundation guests
$140 non-members
All prices are GST inclusive

Bookings

RSVP by Thursday 15 February 2018
Book online at www.melbournepressclub.com or call (03) 9614 2779

C.E.W. BEAN FOUNDATION

Honouring Australian war correspondents

MELBOURNE
PRESS CLUB