THE AWARD

The MPC 2021 Student Journalist the Year award recognises and promotes excellence in Victorian student journalism.

Enrolled student journalists are encouraged to enter a piece of journalism in any media that has been made available to the general public in Victoria during 2021.

A panel of judges will assess entries using the criteria for the Quill awards, with an emphasis on originality, impact, quality and initiative.

The winner will be named at the Melbourne Press Club Quill awards, the annual gala dinner celebrating the best in Victorian journalism.

We are grateful for the support provided by the Judith Neilson Institute for Journalism and Ideas.

THE PRIZE

The MPC Student Journalist of the Year receives a trip Sydney to attend the Global Investigative Journalism Conference conference in October 2022.

GIJC 2022 is a chance to learn from the best in the business — award-winning journalists from around the world, pioneers of data journalism, and fearless investigators who have exposed corruption and abuses of power around the world.

INVESTIGATIVE
CONFERENCE

The prize includes airfares, conference registration and accommodation for the length of the conference. The winner also receives a free annual membership with the Melbourne Press Club.

Winners will be expected to share their experience with MPC and JNI audiences after the conference.
