

No State Of Rest – the rise and rise of Victorian racing

With full crowds returning to Melbourne's Spring Racing Carnival for the first time in three years, hear from new Racing Victoria chief executive Andrew Jones on the future of Victorian Thoroughbred Racing.

As a Sydneysider who now calls Melbourne home, Andrew will also provide unique insight into the battle between Victoria and New South Wales for the best horses, trainers, jockeys and a slice of the all-important wagering dollar.

Newscorp Commercial Director and Managing Editor-Victoria Tom Salom will guide us through the talk's racecard and lead questions from the audience.

The pre-event market has Long Lunch the favourite at $1.50, Time Well Wasted next at $3 and Extremely Boring the longshot at $20.
