

Defamation Nation: Current cases and the reform agenda

Is defamation law reform working for plaintiffs, the media or the public?

Join prominent defamation lawyers and journalists to discuss recent cases and what they say about the ongoing need for reform.

Two panels will discuss pre-trial and trial cases respectively. These will feature:

Peter Bartlett – partner, MinterEllison

Jason Bosland – Melbourne Law School

Sue Chrysanthou SC – barrister

Matt Collins KC – barrister

Jon Faine – journalist and lawyer, Vice Chancellor's Fellow

Heidi Murphy – reporter, Nine

Justin Quill – partner, Thomson Geer

Hosted by the Centre for Advancing Journalism, the Melbourne Law School and the Melbourne Press Club.

Date & Time

Tuesday 18 October
6pm for 6.30pm start
REGISTRATION REQUIRED
RSVP: 5pm Monday 17 October
at melbournepressclub.com

Cost

Free for students and
Melbourne Press Club members,
$25 for non-members

Location

The Forum theatre
Level One Arts West Building
University of Melbourne

CENTRE FOR
ADVANCING JOURNALISM